ABOUT ILLNESS

N. E. A. Staff Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2-Never were the plans and movements of an orien-tal despot shrouded in greater mystery than those of President Wilson at this

Which is just another way of saying that Woodrow Wilson, American citizen, is extremely touchy about his illness. And, unlike other American citizens, Woodrow Wilson is president and has the authority to make his tition of backsairs, gossip. On the other hand, it is only fair to say that persons close to the president have failed to appreciate the sincere and sympathetic interest that the people of this country regardless of party, feel in the health of the president.

Take, for instance, the matter of the president's vacation. It has been said, and apparently truthfully, that the Mayflower, the president's yacht. has been renovated for his use and an elevator installed in it, and that any time he spends away from Washing-ton this summer will be aboard her.

If the president were not so ex-tremely sensitive there would be no reason to make any secret of this. If a man cannot mount stairs without an effort, it is no disgrace for him to use an elevator.

But officials both of the White House and the navy department, which has jurisdiction over the yacht, assure you that they know nothing at all about the matter.

A number of reasons were advanced for Wilson's decision not to go to Woods Hole, Mass. But that does not explain why he has not gone to the dozen or more available resorts.

The only explanation is that the president is not yet a well man, and that in the present state of his health it is better for him to stay in his own home, the White House

If extremely torrid days come, the president will probably escape them aboard the Mayflower, remaining away perhaps for two or three days at a CHICAGO, Aug. 2—A crowd estimated at 49,000, said to be the largest ever to attend a game in the American league park, resterday saw Chicago shut out New York, 3 to 0.

Wonderful pliching by Cicotte, backed by perfect support was responsible. Not a visitor passed second base, and only five hit safely.

The fielding of Jackson and Felsch was sensational. Jackson went into the crowd in the fourth and robbed Ruth of a double. After he caught the ball he fell over the fans. The New Yorkers claimed he dropped the ball, but Umpire Councily ruled otherwise.
